Have fun while exploring Prague!
Find the tasks with the diamond  signs on the map. Play alone or with your friends: the one who loses pays for the drinks this night!
1 correct answer = 1 point*

1. Welcome to Prague Castle! Let's start with St. Vitus Cathedral. Before its construction was finished there was another entrance to the cathedral. Now it is closed with the fence, where 12 horoscope signs are presented. Find your horoscope sign on a fence to get your first point!

2. Well done! On your way right by the walls of the cathedral you will find a statue of the most famous Czech saint - Jan Nepomuk, who is easily recognized by the stars above his head. How many stars are there?

3. Wallenstein Garden has a secret point: there is an artificial stalactite cave (grotta). To the right from the cave, there is a wired aviary designed for keeping exotic birds. Go and find out which birds are kept there!

4. On the corner of the building by the riverside - point no. 3 on the map - you will find a memory table presenting the water level during the biggest flood in the Czech Republic. Find the hidden table and tell when the flood took place.

5. You are situated nearby the narrowest Prague street. It is so narrow that there was even a pedestrian traffic light placed. Count the stairs on the street. How many are there?

6. Right in the middle of Charles Bridge there is a place where you can make a wish. It is marked with a small fence with an image of a famous Czech person. Who is it?

7. On the Malé Square (Little square), right before the Old Town Square and Astronomical clock, stands the oldest Prague fountain. It is framed with a beautiful fence. Find the note on the fence in what year was the fountain founded.

8. You are almost at the end of the route, well done! Have a look around the Old Town Square. On the ground there is a long line, originally made to recognize what time is it. What time does the line show?

9. Great, you are by the last task. Look at the Gun Powder Gate (point 8 on the map). All the route that you made today is a part of the Old Czech Royal Route used by Czech kings. Guess, was it the beginning of The Route to Prague Castle or opposite, the end of the King's way?
